November Authors at Carter Library Specials in Honor of Veterans Day

Atlanta, GA. – November will wrap up this year's author program at the Carter Presidential Library...and what a month it will be. Here's the line-up...

Nov. 14...7:00pm....Graham Plaster, In the Shadow of Greatness

This collection, compiled by members of the United States Naval Academy Class of 2002, chronicles some of the most compelling war experiences from among their classmates, the first to graduate and serve after 9/11. As the mission of Annapolis is to "graduate leaders who are dedicated to a career of naval service," these 33 firsthand experiences both demonstrate the depth of that commitment and the diversity of what is meant by "naval service." Publishers Weekly

Nov. 19...7:00pm....Jon Meacham, Thomas Jefferson: The Art of Power

This will be held in the Carter Center Day Chapel.

Tickets are available at Acappella Books and include an autographed copy of the book.

"This terrific book allows us to see the political genius of Thomas Jefferson better than we have ever seen it before."-Doris Kearns Goodwin, author of Team of Rivals

Nov. 27...7:00pm....Neil Shulman, The Corporate Kid

The author of Doc Hollywood is back with a story of how two very different lives intersect in The Corporate Kid. Charles Sullivan is a black youth from the poor part of town, with a strong sense of family and a good moral compass. Bill Bradford is a powerful white CEO who's lost his way-not just ethically, but, one fateful Sunday morning, also literally. Before long the lives of the Sullivan and Bradford families are intertwined in a mixture of comedy and drama-and opportunity.

Nov. 30...7:00pm....Kevin Phillips, 1775: A Good Year for a Revolution

In 1775, iconoclastic historian and bestselling author Kevin Phillips punctures the myth that 1776 was the watershed year of the American Revolution In 1775, iconoclastic historian and bestselling author Kevin Phillips punctures the myth that 1776 was the watershed year of the American Revolution.
